(a) Qualifications

An applicant for REALTOR[®] Membership who is actively engaged in the real estate profession, and maintains a current, valid real estate broker's or salesperson's license in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or is licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property, has a place of business within the state or a state contiguous thereto (unless a secondary member), has no record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct*, agrees to complete a course of instruction covering the Bylaws, policy and Rules and Regulations of the CCIAOR , the Bylaws of the State Association, and the Constitution Bylaws and Code of Ethics of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS[®], and shall agree that if elected to membership, he/she will abide by such Constitution, Bylaws, policies, Rules and Regulations, and Code of Ethics.

No record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct is intended to mean that the CCIAOR may only consider:*

(A.) Judgments against the applicant within the past three (3) years of violations of (1) civil rights laws, (2) real estate license laws, or (3) other laws prohibiting unprofessional conduct rendered by the courts or other lawful authorities.

(B.) Criminal convictions if (1) the crime was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one (1) year under the law under which the applicant was convicted, and (2) no more than ten (10) years have elapsed since the date of the conviction or the release of the applicant from the confinement imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date.

Article IV, Section 2, of the NAR Bylaws prohibits Member Boards/Associations from knowingly granting REALTOR® Membership to any applicant who has an unfulfilled sanction pending which was imposed by another Board or Association of REALTORS® for violation of the Code of Ethics.

(b) Determining Qualifications

The CCIAOR will also consider the following in determining an applicant's qualifications for REALTOR® Membership:

1. All final findings of Code of Ethics violations and violations of other membership duties in this or any other REALTOR® association within the past three (3) years
2. Pending ethics complaints (or hearings)
3. Pending unsatisfied discipline pending
4. Pending arbitration requests (or hearings)
5. Unpaid arbitration awards or unpaid financial obligations to this or any other REALTOR® association or REALTOR® association MLS.6. Any misuse of the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® in the name of the applicant's firm.

"Provisional" membership may be granted in instances where ethics complaints or arbitration requests (or hearings) are pending in other associations or where the applicant for membership has unsatisfied discipline pending in another association (except for violations of the Code of Ethics; See Article V, Section 2(a) provided all other qualifications for membership have been satisfied). CCIAOR may reconsider the membership status of such individuals when all pending ethics and arbitration matters (and related discipline) have been resolved or if such matters are not resolved within six (6) months from the date that provisional membership is approved. Provisional Members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of REALTOR® Membership. If a member resigns from another association with an ethics complaint or arbitration request pending, the CCIAOR may condition membership on the applicant's certification that he/she will submit to the pending ethics or arbitration proceeding (in accordance with the established procedures of the CCIAOR to which the applicant has made application) and will abide by the decision of the hearing panel.

Section 5.03 Election.

The procedure for election to CCIAOR membership shall be as follows:

(a) Provisional Membership

The chief staff executive (or duly authorized designee) shall determine whether the applicant is applying for the appropriate class of membership. Applicants for REALTOR® Membership may be granted Provisional Membership immediately upon submission of a completed application form and remittance of applicable CCIAOR dues and any application fee. Provisional Members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of membership. Provisional Membership is granted subject to subsequent review of the application by the CCIAOR Board of Directors.

If the CCIAOR Board of Directors determines that the individual does not meet all of the qualifications for membership as established in the CCIAOR's Bylaws, or if the individual does not satisfy all of the requirements within one hundred and eighty (180) days from the CCIAOR's receipt of their application, membership may, at the discretion of the CCIAOR Board of Directors, be terminated.

(b) Dues

Dues shall be computed from the date of application and shall be non-refundable unless the CCIAOR Board of Directors terminates the individual's membership in accordance with Subsection (a) above. In such instances, dues shall be returned to the individual less a prorated amount to cover the number of days that the individual received CCIAOR services and any application fee.

(c) Notice of Termination

The CCIAOR Board of Directors may not terminate any Provisional Membership without providing the Provisional Member with advance notice, an opportunity to appear before the CCIAOR Board of Directors, to call witnesses on his/her behalf, to be represented by counsel, and to make such statements as he/she deems relevant. The CCIAOR Board of Directors may also have counsel present. The CCIAOR Board of Directors shall require that written minutes be made of any hearing before it or may electronically or mechanically record the proceedings.

(d) Termination of Provisional Membership

If the CCIAOR Board of Directors determines that Provisional Membership should be terminated, it shall record its reasons with the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). If the CCIAOR Board of Directors believes that termination of Provisional Membership may become the basis of litigation and a claim of damage by a Provisional Member, it may specify that termination shall become effective upon entry in a suit by the CCIAOR for a declaratory judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction of a final judgment declaring that the termination violates no rights of the individual.

Section 5.04 New member Code of Ethics Orientation.

Applicants for REALTOR® membership and provisional REALTOR® members (where applicable) shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership or provisional members who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within 180 days of the date of application (or, alternatively, the date that provisional membership was granted), will result in denial of the membership application or termination of provisional membership.

Orientation programs must meet the learning objectives and minimum criteria established from time to time by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

Section 5.05 Continuing REALTOR® Member Code of Ethics training.

Effective January 1, 2001 2017, through December 31, 2004 2018, and for successive four two year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the association (with the exception of REALTOR® members granted REALTOR® Emeritus status by the National Association) shall be required to complete quadrennial ethics training of not less than two (2) hours and thirty (30) minutes of instructional time. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another association, the State Association of REALTORS®, the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®, or any other recognized educational institution or provider which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® from time to time. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any four (4)- two (2) year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new four (4)- two (2) year cycle commences.

Failure to satisfy the required periodic ethics training shall be considered a violation of a membership duty. Failure to meet the requirement for the second (2005 through 2008) cycle and subsequent four (4)-year cycles in any two (2) year cycle will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any four (4)- two (2) cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated. (Adopted 1/01, Amended 11/08, Amended 11/2016)

Section 5.06 Status Changes.

- (a) A REALTOR® Member whose employment status changes must provide written notification of such change to the CCAOR within thirty (30) days.

A REALTOR® (non-principal) who becomes a principal in the firm with which he/she has been licensed or, alternatively, becomes a principal in a new firm which will be comprised of REALTOR® principals may be required to satisfy any previously unsatisfied membership requirements applicable to REALTOR® (principal) members but shall, during the period of transition from one status of membership to another, be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of a REALTOR® (principal). If the REALTOR® (non-principal) does not satisfy the requirements established in these Bylaws for the category of membership to which they have transferred within 30 days of the date they advised the association of their change in status, their new membership application will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the board of directors.

A REALTOR® who is transferring his/her license from one firm comprised of REALTOR® principals to another firm comprised of REALTOR® principals shall be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of membership during the period of transition. If the transfer is not completed within 30 days of the date the association is advised of the disaffiliation with the current firm, membership will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the board of directors. (The board of directors, at its discretion, may waive any qualification which the applicant has already fulfilled in accordance with the association's Bylaws.)

- (b) Any application fee related to a change in membership status shall be reduced by an amount equal to any application fee previously paid by the applicant.
- (c) Dues shall be prorated from the first day of the month in which the member is notified of election by the board of directors and shall be based on the new membership status for the remainder of the year.

Article VI. PRIVILEGES AND OBLIGATIONS

Section 6.01 Privileges

The privileges and obligations of members, in addition to those otherwise provided in these Bylaws, shall be specified in this Article.

Section 6.02 Obligations

REALTOR® Members, whether primary or secondary, in good standing whose financial obligations to the CCIAOR are paid in full shall be entitled to vote and to hold elective office in the CCIAOR; may use the terms REALTOR® or/and REALTORS®, which use shall be subject to the provisions of Article VIII; and have the primary responsibility to safeguard and promote the standards, interests, and welfare of the CCIAOR and the real estate profession.

(a) Suspension

If a REALTOR® Member is a sole proprietor in a firm, a partner in a partnership or an officer in a corporation and is suspended or expelled, the firm, partnership or corporation shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension, or until readmission to REALTOR® Membership, or unless connection with the firm, partnership, or corporation is severed, or management control is relinquished, whichever may apply. The membership of all other principals, partners, or corporate officers shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined member, or until readmission of the disciplined member or unless connection of the disciplined member with the firm, partnership or corporation is severed, or unless the REALTOR® who is suspended or expelled removes himself/herself from any form or degree of management control of the firm for the term of the suspension or until readmission to membership, whichever may apply. Removal of an individual from any form or degree of management control must be certified to the CCIAOR by the member who is being suspended or expelled and by the individual who is assuming management control and the signatures of such certification must be notarized. In the event the suspended or expelled member is so certified to have relinquished all form or degree of management control of the firm, the membership of other partners, corporate officers, or other individuals affiliated with the firm shall not be affected, and the firm, partnership or corporation may continue to use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® in connection with its business during the period of suspension or until the former member is readmitted to membership in the CCIAOR. The foregoing is not intended to preclude a suspended or expelled member from functioning as an employee or independent contractor, providing no management control is exercised. Further the membership of REALTORS® other than principals who are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined member shall suspend or terminate during the period of suspension of the disciplined member or until readmission of the disciplined member, or unless connection of the disciplined member with the firm, partnership or corporation is severed, or management control is relinquished or unless the REALTOR® Member (non-principal) elects to sever his/her connection with the REALTOR® and affiliate with another REALTOR® Member in good standing in the CCIAOR, whichever may apply.

If a REALTOR® Member other than a sole proprietor in a firm, partner in a partnership, an officer of a corporation is suspended or expelled, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® by the firm, partnership or corporation shall not be affected.

(b) Action Taken

In any action taken against a REALTOR® Member for suspension or expulsion under Section 2 (a) hereof, notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® Member and they shall be advised that the provisions in Article VI, Section 2 (a) shall apply.

Any member of the CCIAOR may be reprimanded, fined, placed on probation, suspended, or expelled by the CCIAOR Board of Directors for a violation of these Bylaws and/or CCIAOR Rules and Regulations consistent with these Bylaws, after a hearing as provided in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the CCIAOR.

Any REALTOR® Member of the CCIAOR may be disciplined by the CCIAOR Board of Directors for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership, after a hearing as described in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the CCIAOR, provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with the discipline authorized by the Professional Standards Committee of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS® as set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association.

Resignations of members shall become effective when received in writing by the CCAOR Board of Directors, provided, however, that if any member submitting the resignation is indebted to the CCAOR for dues, fees, fines, or other assessments of the CCAOR or any of its services, departments, divisions, or subsidiaries, the CCAOR may condition the right of the resigning member to reapply for membership upon payment in full of all such monies owed.

If a member resigns from the CCAOR or otherwise causes membership to terminate with an ethics complaint pending, the complaint shall be processed until the decision by the CCAOR with respect to disposition of the complaint is final by the CCAOR (if respondent does not hold membership in any other association) or by any other association in which the respondent continues to hold membership. If an ethics respondent resigns or otherwise causes membership in all Boards to terminate before an ethics complaint is filed alleging unethical conduct occurred while the respondent was a REALTOR®, the complaint, once filed, shall be processed until the decision of the CCAOR with respect to disposition of the complaint is final. In any instance where an ethics hearing is held subsequent to an ethic respondent's resignation or membership termination, any discipline ratified by the Board of Directors shall be held in abeyance until such time as the respondent rejoins an association of REALTORS®.

These CCIAOR Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed and new CCIAOR Bylaws may be adopted by the majority vote of the members present and voting, in person, remotely/electronically or by proxy, at any meeting at which a quorum is present, provided the substance of such proposed amendment or amendments is plainly stated in the call for the meeting, except that the CCIAOR Board of Directors may, at any regular or special meeting of the CCIAOR Board of Directors at which a quorum is present, approve amendments to the Bylaws which are mandated by NAR policy.

When amendments to the Bylaws of the CCIMLS have been approved by the CCIAOR Board of Directors, said amendments shall be effective immediately or as stated in the amending resolution. If the proposed amendments to the Bylaws of the CCIMLS fail approval of the CCIAOR Board of Directors, the CCIMLS Board of Directors shall be informed, and advised that the proposed amendment or amendments to the Bylaws be further considered and resubmitted to the CCIAOR as approved by the Participants of the CCIMLS.

(a) NAR Mandate

Section 16.04 Clerical Edits.

The Board of Directors shall be authorized to correct article and section designations, punctuation, and cross-references and to make such other technical and conforming changes as may be necessary to reflect the intent of the CCIAOR and CCIMLS in connection with their Bylaws.

Article XVII. DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the CCIAOR, the CCIAOR Board of Directors, after providing for the payment of all obligations, shall distribute any remaining assets to the Massachusetts Association of REALTORS® or, within its discretion, to any other non-profit tax exempt organization.

Article XVIII. MULTIPLE LISTING SERVICE

Section 18.01 Authority.

The CCIAOR shall maintain for the use of its members a Multiple Listing Service (MLS) which shall be a lawful corporation of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, all the stock of which shall be owned by CCIAOR.

Section 18.02 Purpose.

A Multiple Listing Service (MLS) is a means by which authorized Participants make blanket unilateral offers of compensation to other Participants (acting as subagents, buyer agents, or in other agency or non-agency capacities defined by law); by which cooperation among Participants is enhanced, by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized Participants to prepare appraisals, analyses, and other valuations of real property for bona fide clients and customers; by which Participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common databases; and is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so Participants may better serve their clients and the public. Entitlement to compensation is determined by the cooperating broker's performance as procuring cause of the sale (or lease).

Section 18.03 Governing Documents.

The CCIAOR Board of Directors shall cause any Multiple Listing Service (MLS) established by it pursuant to this Article to conform its Corporate Charter, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, Policies, Practices, and Procedures at all times to the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, and Policies of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

Section 18.04 Participation.

Any REALTOR® of this or any other Board who is a principal, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager acting on behalf of a principal, without further qualification, except as otherwise stipulated in these Bylaws, shall be eligible to participate in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) upon agreeing in writing to conform to the Rules and Regulations thereof and to pay the costs incidental thereto. However, under no circumstances is any individual or firm, regardless of membership status, entitled to Multiple Listing Service (MLS) "membership" or "participation" unless they hold a current, valid real estate broker's license and offer or accept compensation to and from other Participants or are licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property. Use of information developed by or published by The CCIAOR's Multiple Listing Service (MLS) is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a Participant's licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are prohibited. Further, none of the foregoing is intended to convey "participation" or "membership" or any right of access to information developed by or published by a Board Multiple Listing Service (MLS) where access to such information is prohibited by law. The REALTOR® principal of any firm, partnership, corporation, or the branch office manager designated by said firm, partnership, or corporation as the Participant shall have all rights, benefits, and privileges of the MLS, and shall accept all obligations to the MLS for the Participant's firm, partnership, or corporation, and for compliance with the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of the MLS by all persons affiliated with the Participant who utilize the MLS.

Mere possession of a broker's license is not sufficient to qualify for Multiple Listing Service (MLS) participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or firm offers or accepts cooperation and compensation means that the Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list real property of the type listed on the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers or agents in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS). "Actively" means on a continual and ongoing basis during the operation of the Participant's real estate business. The "Actively" requirement is not intended to preclude Multiple Listing Service (MLS) participation by a Participant or potential Participant that operates a real estate business, on a part-time, seasonal, or similarly time-limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny Multiple Listing Service (MLS) participation to a Participant or potential Participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit a Multiple Listing Service (MLS) to deny participation based on the level of service provided by the Participant or potential Participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law.

The key is that the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the MLS in which participation is sought. This requirement does not permit a Multiple Listing Service (MLS) to deny participation to a Participant or potential Participant that operates a “Virtual Office Website” (VOW) (including a VOW that the Participant uses to refer customers to other Participants) if the Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. A Multiple Listing Service (MLS) may evaluate whether a Participant or potential Participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to offer or accept cooperation and compensation only if the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) has a reasonable basis to believe that the Participant or potential Participant is in fact not doing so. The membership requirement shall be applied in a nondiscriminatory manner to all Participants and potential Participants.

Section 18.05 Access to Comparable and Statistical Information.

CCIAOR members who are actively engaged in real estate brokerage, management, appraising, land development or building, but who do not participate in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS), are nonetheless entitled to receive, by purchase or lease, information other than current listing information that is generated wholly or in part by the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) including 'comparable' information, 'sold' information, and statistical reports. As information is provided for the exclusive use of CCIAOR members and individuals affiliated with CCIAOR members who are engaged in the real estate business and may not be transmitted, retransmitted, or provided in any manner to any unauthorized individual, officer or firm except as otherwise specified in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) Rules and Regulations. CCIAOR members who receive such information, either as an Association service or through the CCIAOR's Multiple Listing Service (MLS), are also subject to the applicable provisions of the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) Rules and Regulations whether they participate in the Multiple Listing Service (MLS) or not.

Article XIX. SEAL

The Directors shall provide a corporate seal which shall be circular in form and shall be inscribed thereon with the name of the corporation, the state of incorporation, year of incorporation and the words, "Corporate Seal".

Article XX. NOTICE

Unless otherwise provided by law, whenever any notice is required to be given to any member or Director of the Corporation under the provisions of these Bylaws or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.
